Events & Private Dining Spaces

The Princess of Wales pub has been lovingly renovated, re-establishing itself as a warm and welcoming local with great British pub food, quality drinks and a laid back atmosphere.

It's got something for everyone, be it a Friday night Rhubarb Royale cocktail, dry cured bacon breakfast bap or a pint and a homemade pie.

Today, The Princess of Wales has three generous floors of event space and a secluded garden that can be booked for parties, press launches, weddings, private breakfasts, lunches and dinners, meetings, garden parties, training, interviews, exhibitions and much more.

Each room is adaptable to its uses and there is a space to fit every request.

The combination of rooms and entire floors can be hired out for events needing a larger capacity. Alternatively, for parties of over 120 guests there is the option of exclusive use of the entire venue which holds up to 350 people.

Princess Room

50 seated

(ask our team if you have more than 50 guests)

70 standing

The Princess Room is a large open room with seven huge bay windows, tall ceilings and a beautiful interiors. The gold and chocolate brown tones mixed with the dark wooden reclaimed floor are lit by two large chandeliers. They are covered in velvet patch work bringing together all the tones of the room.

The furniture has a classic contemporary look and feel creating a warm environment in a large open space. It features its own private Chesterfield bar and has the facilities to play your own music.

The Princess Room is also licensed to hold marriage ceremonies and civil partnerships.

The Garden Room is a bright and colourful room that has two unique areas and its own fabulous bar. The room leads directly onto our Banksy Garden and the two spaces are hired as one, for private events for up to 120 guests.

This space is a favourite for discos and Summer BBQs. It's also a fabulous space for Christmas parties and informal company get togethers.

With its own WC, cloakroom, sound system & bar, this is the perfect area for any special event!
